

October 28, 1917

Bath

In spite of wrecks and bruises, I have had a grand vacation. Julie

December 25, 1908

Lisbon

May you have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and lots of lovely things for your chest. FIP

December 23, 1912

Standish

Suppose you are all having a fine time, since I am not there to spoil the weather. H.

Deared Annie:-
Just a line this morning I rec'd your letter and was very glad to hear from that dear little Dyer girl. Annie hold this up to a looking glass and read it. Very di. I shall calognino with deep No way let the I. no about I think I never fit the wonder to see you for me was. I think you would longly mind.